forty

foresight

ST Engineering's visionary approach drives its success. Over the past 40 years, it has anticipated changes and adapted its business focus to serve the global market.

forty

originality

ST Engineering values originality above all things. It spurs the Group to create novel solutions that transcend the ordinary and enhance our competitiveness.

forty

responsibility

Success in the business arena is not ST Engineering's sole focus. Ever mindful of its responsibility to society, it proactively reaches out to the less fortunate, promotes the arts and education, engages local communities, and helps preserve the environment.

teamwork

ST Engineering's success is dependent on the combined effort of its stakeholders – staff, business partners and customers – working together in a synergistic relationship to create value for all.

young

At 40 years young, life is just beginning for ST Engineering.
Youthfulness is a state of mind; and the energy and enthusiasm this produces are exhibited at all levels within the Group.
